ALEXANDRIA AWAITS TEMPERANCE ISSUE

Close Vote Is Predicted in State Sen ate on Virginia Prohibition Election.

WETS CLAIM SCANT MAJORITY

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 21.—Local liquo dealers as well as temperance advocates in Alexandria are now awaiting with interest the action of the State senate on the Williams enabling act, which yesterday passed the lower branch of the legislature by a vote of 75 to 78.

The musical and literary entertainment given tonight in the Westminster building for the benefit of Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, was well attended. A feature was a chorus of sixty young women. Among the participants were Miss F. King. Miss Caroline Kast, Miss Dora Varney, Miss Bertha Bendef, Miss Blanche Rotchford, Justin Y. Cox, F, Purdy, J. L. Kidwell, and M. Solomon.

FOSTER RETURNS HOME.

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—Joel M. Foster, the forty-five-year-old married man, who cloped to Mobile. Ala., a month ago with eighteen-year-old Delliah Bradley, of Pemberton, N. J., has returned to his home at Browns Mills, six miles from the islature by a vote of 75 to 13.

This bill provides for an election in Virginia on the question of State-wide prohibition. It is predicted that the vote in the senate will be very close.

The wets claim they will win by a scant majority in the senate. In the latter event this will kill the measure for two years, when it again will come before the legislature.

ALASKA RAILWAY BILL IS UP FOR VOTE TODAY

Fight Centers on Cummins' Amend ment, Which Fails by Vote of 44 to 17.

MEASURE'S PASSAGE ASSURED

It became necessary again yesterday for the Senate to take a "recess" instead of adjourning to preserve the unanimous consent agreement for a vote on the Alaska railroad bill before the close of the "legislative day of Thursday, January 2."

But Senator Chamberlain, in charge of the bill, announced that he would insist on a vote before adjournment tomorrow. Indications are that the bill will pass by good majority. More than fifty votes re counted as certain for it. The fight yesterday was centered on the mendment by Senator Cummins to strike from the bill the provision authorizing the President to lease the railroads in Alaska after they have been constructed at government expense. Before this phase of the bill was finally disposed of Senator Bristow succeeded in attroducing into it an amendment authorizing the President, in specific terms, to lease the Alaskan railroads to the Pan ama Railroad Company. Senator Cum-mins' amendment was defeated—44 to 17 mins' amendment was defeated—4 to 17.

The fight for the Cummins' amendment was made by the Progressive Republi-Senators Lane and Martin, Demo rats, voted for it, however.

A determined fight was made by Senators Hoke Smith, Bacon and Williams of Mississippi, against the proposal in the bill to authorize the President to acquire existing lines of railroads in Alaska if, in his judgment, it is necessary to do so and to extend them into the interior. But the feature was retained

I Will Tell You How—FREE

I will tell you gladly and willingly. Why should any woman neglect an opportunity to escape the pain and heartache of being skinny, scrawny, angular, and unattractive in body? Misery is not our beringe. Nature planned that you-a woman-should have the rich, pulsing lines of warm, living flesh molded after the mother of us all, the description of whom perfumes our sacred literature with love and admiration for the divinity of woman's form. For why should there be that pitful aspect—the face of a woman and the form of a man?

How the Remedy for Catarrh Was Discovered.

THIS terrible disease has raged unchecked for years simply because symp-toms have been treated while the vicious germs that cause the trouble have been left to circulate in the blood, and bring the disease back as fast as local greatments could relieve it.

C. E. Gauss, who experimented for years on a treatment for Catarrh, found that after perfecting a balm that relieved the nose and throat troubles quickly, he could not prevent the trouble beginning all over again. On test cases, he could completely remove all signs of Catarrh from nose and Careful experiments and investigations have shown that as the troubles were expelled from the nose and throat, the real cause of the disease was overlooked and in a short time the Catarrh would return stronger than ever. Mr. Gauss has gone way ahead of the ordinary methods of treatment and has provided a remedy that
